Fury Of Last-Ditch Stand Seen In Defense On Central Front

CLAIM GERMANS SUFFER HUGE LOSSES

"Scorched-Earth" Policy Being Followed Where Red Troops Withdraw

(International News Service)
MOSCOW, Oct. 9.—Russia's huge armies rose up in all the fury of a last-ditch stand today to stem the crushing German offensive on the central front.

The Red army newspaper reported that a German attempt to reach and capture the town of Vyazma, 140 miles west of Moscow, had failed in the face of the desperate Russian resistance. Soviet advice to Moscow likewise reported that since yesterday the Nazi legions have been trying to batter their way northward from German-occupied Orel, 200 miles south of the Russian capital.

Tank Battles In Progress
Tank battles are now in progress in the Orel district, these dispatches said, while a new German push was launched yesterday in the region of Bryansk.

Thus in all sectors of the central front, fighting of the utmost ferocity raged. The battle in the region of Orel was reported constantly increasing in intensity with the Germans trying to push forward at top speed. Everything of industrial value in Orel was destroyed in compliance with the Soviet scorched earth policy—before the Russians evacuated the town.

Troops Withdraw
Then, it was reported, the Red army troops under command of Gen. Lelyushenko withdrew in orderly fashion to new defensive positions.

PA NEW OBSERVES

There could be no complaint of mushrooms not being up now. Many were seen in fields yesterday. One employee of the city who went hunting mushrooms secured a half bushel. A hot sun following the rains developed the mushrooms.

A moderate winter, with not much snow, was predicted today by A. M. Stiner of Emporium, who bases his forecasts on a lifelong study of trees. It will be a healthy winter, too, he said, because of the heavy foliage on trees this year. Three weeks ago, he predicted a late fall with dry weather which would result in low streams and some dry springs which might threaten the community water supply. Thus far his prediction has been true.

Members of the high school band had an exciting time last evening, playing tag with a mephitis kitty better known as a skunk at Franklin Field. The skunk seemed to enjoy the proceedings immensely, and behaved like a gentleman until the lights were turned out for rehearsal of a number to be given later in the season, when he let go with both barrels.

Statistics for the same date a year ago follow:
Maximum temperature, 61.

Consider Seven Plans For Reapportionment Of Congressional Districts

By JOHN PAGET
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Oct. 9.—Seven plans to reapportion Pennsylvania's congressional districts on the basis of the 1940 census were being printed today for consideration by the 10-member legislative committee on Oct. 15.

House Majority Leader Leo A. Achteman, Monroe Democrat, and chairman of the five-member house group, said little had been accomplished at the two-hour conference yesterday except to give primary consideration to the proposals.

Earlier, Achteman had expressed hope that each member would submit his own plan to reduce the state's delegation from 34 to 33.

He said there was little hope that the committee would be able to adopt any of the proposals for several weeks and hinted that Gov. Arthur H. James might call the legislature into special session to approve the plan during the week starting Nov. 17.

Plans Suggested
Both Achteman and Sen. John H. Dent, Westmoreland Democrat, said there was friction between urban and rural factions on the committee. Achteman listed the following proposals:

Breaks Engagement And Gets Bullets

New York Youth Believed Dying

Shot As He Was Saying Farewell To Girl After Long Courtship

GIRL IS HELD BY POLICE FOR SHOOTING

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Taking her boy friend, Gus Scaletta, 27, into her arms for a farewell kiss—after he told her he was "through with her" after a five-year engagement—24-year-old Mary Clorino today emptied a pistol into him while they stood in close embrace in the hall of her Brooklyn home.

Scaletta, a welder in the Brooklyn navy yard, fell to the floor with two bullet wounds in the abdomen and one in the right arm. A fourth shot went wild. Police, who responded to an alarm by passerby who heard the shooting, rushed the youth to the hospital and arrested the girl on a felonious assault charge.

Say Youth Dying
At King's County Hospital, doctors said the youth was dying. Police quoted Mary as saying that Scaletta had taken his ring back four months ago, and that early today, after returning from a date at the movies, he told her that he was in love with another girl, and that this was the "last time" he was going to call.

Mary, who will be arraigned in felony court later today, said that she had a gun, which she said she had once found in the street, hidden in the hall, and that after he told her he was going to leave, she embraced him, and then opened fire. When police arrived, they found her sobbing and crying with Scaletta's head propped up on her knees.

"I wasted six years of my life with him," William R. Foley of the district attorney's office quoted her as saying. "He said he did not love me any more. He said he was going to leave me, and that he was going to disgrace me. Then I shot him."

vealed that he didn't know that he had married such a famous celebrity until three months later. During the 1933 Christmas season, Reynolds received an expensive card from the couple.
Miss Morgan divorced Maschke June 20, 1935, and married Lloyd Johnson, last July.
The noted star had been ill for three weeks and received 13 blood transfusions since she was admitted to the Chicago hospital on September 20.

Funeral Saturday

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Members of her family announced today that public funeral services will be held Saturday for Helen Morgan, the girl who sang with a sob in her throat and for two decades was America's leading torch singer.
The services are expected to be held in a chapel at suburban La Grange, and will be open to the public. Exact time of the services and the burial place were expected to be announced later today.

Miss Morgan, who was 37 years old, died last night in Henrotin hospital, where she was operated upon Sept. 25 for a liver ailment which had plagued her since childhood. She was given 13 blood transfusions—the last yesterday afternoon—as doctors battled to rally her waning strength.

Until a week ago, she was given a chance to recover, but she grew steadily weaker and finally slipped into a coma from which she never recovered.
At her bedside when she died were her husband, Lloyd Johnson, a Los Angeles automobile dealer, and her mother, Mrs. Lulu Morgan, of High Falls, N. Y. Also present were an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dillon of Chicago, and a few close friends.

Although she was a favorite of stage, screen and radio and attained wide popularity as a singer of torch songs in night clubs where she was wont to perch on piano tops, Miss Morgan probably will be best remembered for her portrayal of the mulatto girl, "Julie," in Florenz Ziegfeld's production of "Show Boat." She later appeared in the same role on the screen.
One of Miss Morgan's first successful stage appearances was in Ziegfeld's "Sally." From there she went on to fame in night clubs, and later trouped with George White's "Scandals." Among her movies were "Applause," "Roadhouse Nights," "Sweet Music," and "Frankie and Johnnie."

Miss Morgan was born in Danville, Ill. Her father was a cattleman. She came to Chicago as a child and worked for a time at a ribbon counter in a department store. Her climb to fame began when she won a beauty contest in Canada and returned to Chicago to sing in music halls. She stepped right from the music halls into "Sally."

CONSIDER SEVEN PLANS FOR RE-APPORTIONMENT

during the 1941 session which would eliminate the Bucks-Lehigh district, now represented by U. S. Congressmen Charles L. Gerlach of Allentown, a Republican, by adding Bucks county to the Montgomery county district and Lehigh county to the Berks county district.
2. The Republican proposal to reduce the Allegheny and Philadelphia county delegations by one each and the creation of a new district in northern Luzerne county.
3. Eliminate the 15th (Horseshoe) district composed of Pike, Wayne, Susquehanna, Bradford, Sullivan, Wyoming, Columbia and Montour counties, by absorbing them into contiguous districts.
4. Reduce the Philadelphia delegation from seven to six and elect the candidates at large.
5. Shuffle Philadelphia's delegation to eliminate one district. This plan was suggested by House Speaker Elmer Kilroy, Philadelphia Democrat, and would remove Congressman Hugh Scott—only Republican member of the Philadelphia group.
6. Eliminate the 23rd district composed of Blair, Centre and Clearfield counties by attaching them to contiguous districts.
7. Reapportion the entire state as suggested by Judge Albert B. Maris, Philadelphia, a member of the third circuit court of appeals.

Achteman said the jurist's proposal would not only re-shuffle existing congressional districts but would split numerous counties. Legislative leaders predicted the plan would not be adopted by the committee because it would meet strong opposition in the legislature.
The plan finally agreed upon by the committee, Achteman said, "must be sold to the house and senate members."

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS WANT WIDENING TO INCLUDE CURB

taken up with the highway department. "We have told the department that if it does not put a curb along this section of highway, we will refuse to accept any responsibility for property damages. Pedestrians should be given some guarantee of safety along this busy highway and we expect to maintain our stand in the matter."

Some Damage

The improvement will mean taking some property along the highway and perhaps moving some houses, entailing considerable damage. If the commissioners remain steadfast in their refusal to pay damages, the state will have to assume the responsibility.
Atlantic avenue has been a breeding spot for accidents ever since the highway was built. There are no sidewalks along the highway and cars hop over to the outside edge of the road, particularly on curves. The accident record along this highway is one of the highest in the county.

To add a curbing six inches high from the road level would add but little to the cost of the road, it is felt, and would save lives and property.
As the matter stands it is up to the state highway department. Either a curb is installed or the department pays the road damages which will be higher than the cost of the curbing.

GERMAN REPORT CLAIMS OFFICIALS LEAVE MOSCOW

States Ambassador Laurence Steinhardt led the diplomatic evacuation and will not return to Moscow. DNB said he left the American embassy in custody of the charge d'affaires.

According to DNB, Soviet travelers at Shanghai asserted British and American diplomats urged Premier Josef Stalin to leave Moscow.
It was stated that Stalin finally decided upon Stalingrad, on the Volga river about 500 miles south-east of Moscow, as the new seat for the Russian government, the Communist party and military authorities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—State department officials today flatly denied Berlin reports that American Ambassador Laurence Steinhardt will not return to Moscow following his trip to the United States.
Officials also denied the reports that Steinhardt is leading any diplomatic evacuation from the Soviet capital or that he advised Premier Josef Stalin to leave Moscow.

The reports were ridiculed as German propaganda.

MILLION REDS HELD IN TRAP ASSERTS BERLIN

Reich press chief Dr. Otto Dietrich indicated that the campaign is all but over.
"Our last great opponent in continental Europe will be eliminated," Hitler said, "and England will suffer a decisive defeat through the loss of her last remaining ally on the continent."

"Comrades, you have seen this 'parade' of workers and peasants. 'You have seen the poverty which prevails in this country which could be capable of feeding the entire world to a degree unimaginable to us Germans.'

"This is the result of twenty-five years of Jewish rule, which in the shape of Bolshevism was fundamentally equal to the basest form of capitalism."

"When you were summoned on June 22 when the invasion of Russia began you were faced by the largest military power of all times. 'Within hardly three months, you succeeded in smashing one tank brigade after another, annihilated countless divisions, took uncounted prisoners and occupied areas with which the foe was supplying its war industry with raw materials.'

"Within a few weeks, the most decisive industrial centers of the Soviet Union will be in your hands. Hitler dealt at length with the gigantic quantity of war materials captured and told of the vast amount of work done in repairing and rebuilding railway lines and rebuilding bridges in the areas now under Nazi rule."

"The world has never witnessed anything like it," he said.

Editor's Note: In answer to Hitler's proclamation, the British radio said, according to CBS: "The Germans are repeating all the claims they made on July 12, when they said the Russian army was in a state of disintegration and the road to Moscow lay open."

SEEK AGREEMENT ON LEASE-LEND AID TO BRITAIN

also wants Great Britain to agree to co-operate with this country after the war in the establishment of an international economic system based on low tariff barriers, non-discrimination and a freer flow of trade.

The state department is seeking to incorporate the "principals" of this plan in a formal agreement with the British government. The agreement, designed to give the United States a fair quid pro quo for the aid this country is rendering Great Britain in the present war, is now the subject of formal discussions between the two governments.

Specific American proposals concerning the basis for the agreement have been sent to London, and are now being considered by the British government.

TAX ON SPORTS

AMERICA became a nation addicted to athletics without thought that sports would some day provide Uncle Sam a lucrative source of revenue. But virtually all the implements of sport are now included in a ten percent tax which the manufacturer must fork over. In addition there is a tax on gate receipts.

Moreover, public bowling alleys and billiard pool tables are taxed $10 annually. A person who has a motor vehicle registered in his name must purchase and attach to it $5 in stamps. A person who luxuriates in a boat must pay, according to the boat's size, from $5 to $200.

All sporting goods are swept into the tax net, the ten percent levy applying to equipment for badminton, baseball, billiards, bowling, clay pigeons, cricket, croquet, curling, deck tennis, fencing, fishing, football, golf, gymnastics, hockey, lacrosse, polo, skiing, skating, coasting, squash, tennis, track and field, volleyball, water polo, wrestling. Playing cards, long a favorite target of the tax experts, will now be taxed thirteen cents a deck.

Play in America may keep Jack from being a dull boy, but at the same time it makes him dig.

THOSE ANTI-NAZI REVOLTS

Official German disclosures that more Czechs have been executed for anti-Nazi activity and that "strong measures" are being taken to put down a Serbian revolt suggest that resistance to Hitler rule is increasing rather than diminishing in the occupied countries. In Bohemia and Moravia, in particular, terrorism appears rampant. Sabotage seems to be on the rise in all the captive lands.

Yet there can be no doubt that in spite of the stubborn opposition of the oppressed peoples the Nazis, using brute force to keep order, are reorganizing the invaded territories to fit the Berlin plan of conquest.

This, to considerable degree, is the danger of a long-drawn-out war: That with every passing month Hitler has the opportunity to consolidate his gains, thus making his final overthrow more difficult. Certainly there is as yet no cause for Britain merely to sit back to await developments; nor is there any sound reason for the United States to dawdle in sending war materials to the British, in the faint hope that the growing unrest in occupied Europe will hasten Hitler's downfall.

OUT OF THE CAMPS FOR CHRISTMAS

A War Department decision to limit Army inductions in November and December until after the Christmas holidays is a good move.

Early weeks in camp are the toughest on trainees and having them fall during the Yuletide season would make the period worse for them.

As a matter of fact, the idea could well be carried further. By the end of November the big maneuvers will be well over. It would be advisable to give substantial Christmas leaves to a large proportion of the soldiers who are to remain in the service for some time to come. They deserve that consideration.

The thing could be done without dangerously impairing the military training program. Instead, when the men returned to their camps they would sail in on their jobs with plenty of zip to make up for time lost and would be worth all it cost.

THOUGHTS ON THE SUBWAY

Customers of New York's subway left 25,000 unclaimed articles on the trains during an eighteen-month period. The whole lot, ranging from bird cages to false teeth to a knife sharpener's grindstone stand, was auctioned off the other day for $1,586, which is a neat income from the human foible of forgetfulness.

That isn't all that the millions of underground travelers left on the cars. They also disposed of a more amorphous thing called the subway stare. It's as inanimate and stolid as a suitcase or umbrella, and considerably more distressing to inexperienced subway patrons.

The metamorphosis is remarkable. When a subway veteran enters the train, he at once becomes part of it. Eyes get glazed, cheeks slack and the body resignedly sways in rhythm with the straps overhead. Self-expression lies in its course, giving itself over to a mechanical monster rushing through tunnels.

Then a destination is reached, emotions and activity stir again and the subway releases part of its cargo, human once more.

What with an impending shortage of refrigerators, it's an economic shame that something cannot be done with those subway stares. They've cold enough to outfreeze an ice cube.

FOOD RESERVOIR

Britain and her allies have agreed to start the formation of a great reservoir of food and supplies for use of Europe and other devastated lands after the war. In London United States Ambassador Winant applauds the idea as having great prospective usefulness.

No doubt it has, not only to keep conquered peoples in their toes seeking a feasible means of helping to end the Nazi rule but also as a bulwark against grave social disorders in the first days of peace when people expect a betterment of their condition and find that there are no means close at hand. It is conceivable that after the war a reservoir of food will save many a government from downfall and aid in the restoration of other governments.

How this reservoir of supply is to be created is not announced. Probably it will be built up slowly out of the surpluses of the Western Hemisphere, South Africa and Australia. Certainly Russia is in no position to help, particularly if all of the Ukraine is overrun. That area produces nearly a third of Russia's principal foods and Soviet purchasing agents are already eagerly seeking new food stocks, especially meats.

The situation as of today seems to be that the anti-axis nations have all they can do now to supply the war. But as the Western Hemisphere production is stepped up a general reserve may be slowly accumulated. The wheat reserve is already at hand.

The average taxpayer is not surprised upon reading that it is now proposed to do away with vests as a cloth economy measure. He regards this as inevitable in the tax collector's quest for his share.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

P. T. A. AND BETTER PARENT-HOOD

The local PTA units have begun to assemble and map out their programs for the year. Most newspapers have been very generous in the space they have given to the work of these organizations. Let it be said to those parents who do not know the PTA that its aims and purposes are for the welfare of our children; to interpret the home to the school and the school to the home, with the major emphasis on furthering better parent-hood. I know of no other service institution doing quite so much good.

The dues of its members are so small that virtually every parent can afford to belong to it. All its officers, from the national president down to the president of the local body, serve without pay. Thousands of good men and women devote a tremendous amount of time and energy to it, some serving for years. The total membership in our country now exceeds two and one-half million, and the number is increasing very rapidly.

Program makers are tempted to overcrowd programs. However good the numbers might be, not many meetings over an hour in length are profitable. More often than not they last two hours or more. Rarely is it well to have more than one speaker at a session. Two names may attract more people than one, if they have not attended before; but there are more chances for a boring speech from two speakers than from one. And if both happen to be tireless!

Father's Night

The tendency is toward holding more of the meetings in the evenings, so that the fathers might attend. Splendid! Fathers are parents, too. At these evening meetings frequently a father presides—an excellent way to suggest to other fathers that men, as well as women, can be leaders. Anyway the masculine superiority complex and tradition so persists in the nervous system of a good many men, that they find it painful to have their sex ignored. The good women wishing to enlist more fathers in the work of the PTA might as well kid them along a little, by making them think they are important, regardless of any womanly opinion.

Charting Programs

At these evening meetings sometimes the entertainment and other preliminaries last an hour or so when a speaker or speakers must appear before a tired audience. Often the speaker is a busy person who has made considerable personal sacrifice to serve, generally without pay. Regardless of his personal sacrifice, his speech will rarely be effective if the audience is tired and it is late. Then he may be long-winded. He ought to know before engaged to speak exactly when his address will begin and precisely when it must end, and that he will be rapped down on the minute.

In my judgment the best work of the PTA is its emphasis on improvement of parenthood through its study groups.

A selected list of books good for study groups or individual parents may be had by writing me at 235 E. 45th street, N. Y. City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

The World and the Mud Puddles

THOSE SWISS

Switzerland is the paradox among nations. It has within itself all those elements which in the usual experience of history make for disunity and internal tension. That is to say, it has sharp divisions as to religion, language, local culture and even literature. In a sense, indeed, Switzerland is not one but twenty-two nations, for the cantons, like our own states, are sovereign. Yet there is probably no people upon the globe in whom the sense of national unity is stronger. And throughout six hundred and fifty years of incessant European wars, revolutions and religious upheavals, Switzerland has preserved its freedom and integrity, except for a brief interval of the Napoleonic wars. Today Switzerland remains a bright island of peace and liberty in a continent which is one vast dark sea of war and slavery.

The Swiss at home and abroad, are this year celebrating the six hundred fiftieth anniversary of their nation. Like the briefer history of the United States, the history of Switzerland offers an interesting study in the problems of federalism and centralization. The economic changes of the nineteenth century brought strong centralizing tendencies even in Switzerland. But in contrast to the United States these were achieved without great sacrifice of local patriotism and particularism. Perhaps, then, the reorganization of Europe on something like the Swiss model may be the answer to the condition which has existed on that continent since the sixteenth century, the problem that almost every generation from Westphalia to Versailles has sought in vain to solve.

Rev. R. C. Pease, D.D.

"How does a hostess keep conversation going with a group of guests who do not play bridge? I find it very difficult, especially when they are of different mental types."—Hostess.

Answer: It is always a hostess' responsibility to keep conversation flowing without any embarrassing silences. I cannot give you any set formula, for topics crop up accidentally. Probably the easiest starter of conversation is to ask if anyone has seen such and such a movie and to follow with queries as to opinions on the actors featured in it. Or, if some guest picks up a book from a table and asks who is reading it, you may reply that you are and that it is very interesting. Never go into details about plots but you may give a cursory account of their salient points. That will break the ice and another guest will probably find a similarity between the movie or story in question and one which she has recently seen or read. Thus conversation develops. All of us have some experience or some anecdote to contribute. But it is the hostess' duty to keep conversation from dying out. When there is a lull, she must come to the rescue. It isn't as difficult as it sounds, for one subject just naturally leads to another.

Question: I have lived here for a few months and am still a stranger to everyone. I don't go to school or to work, so consequently I never meet anyone. I am lonesome for friends. I am young and like to have fun. Can you suggest any way that I might meet people?—I. F.

Answer: Go to church—any church, of the denomination in which you have been brought up. There you will find social activities, for there are always dances and other meetings of the young people.

If you do not succeed in meeting them through this channel, go to the pastor and explain your difficulties and I am sure that he will see to it that you meet boys and girls of your own age and taste.

Question: Where should the knife be put at one's place at table between periods of cutting the meat? When the meal is finished where should the knife and fork rest?—D. P.

Answer: When not in use, the knife should be placed on the edge of the plate, with the handle toward the right. When the meal is finished, the knife and fork should be placed with the handles toward the right side of the plate.

Less Buying Now Might Halt Later Slump
Economists Look Forward To Post-War Day
Disagree Over Prospects Of A Depression

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. — Just how the discouragement of civilian buying, while the war lasts, is going to prevent a post-emergency slump isn't apparent to a good many economists.

The theory, as explained by individuals like Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau and Chairman Marriner S. Eccles of the Federal Reserve System's board of governors, is that, if consumers will content themselves, for the present, with only the bare necessities of life, later on there'll be such an accumulated demand for everything as to compel industry to produce like fury to supply it—and that'll prevent a depression.

The American Bankers' associations' economic policy commission, which ought to understand such problems pretty well, rather mildly indorses this notion. The commission's head, W. Randolph Burgess of New York, doesn't go so far as to deny, like Experts Morgenthau and Eccles, that there will be a depression, but he does say that it won't necessarily be inevitable, not if the public will postpone its buying, as Henry and Marriner recommend.

But will the public do it? Henry and Marriner evidently think not, unless it's coerced. How coerce it? Why, by making prices so high that it simply will have to economize. Well, prices show a tendency to rise of their own volition, without any governmental boosting. Ah, but that kind of an automatic rise is just what all hands are trying desperately to prevent, and it's axiomatic that inflation always is followed by a slump.

National Price Fixer Leon Henderson's particular job is to put a lid over the threatening "upward spiral" as he calls it, in an uncontrolled inflationary direction. Secretary Morgenthau and Reserve Chairman Eccles don't want inflation to become rampant, either. They want higher prices on non-essential stuff, to limit buying all they can, but they want to keep the advance strictly under governmental regulation.

Taxation Method

Now, how to accomplish this? Secretary Morgenthau especially prescribes the taxation method. The treasury needs the taxation money, for one thing. He's urged increased levies upon nearly everything in the luxury category and upon quite a few things that are middling necessary. And congress provided him with the required law, which began (Continued On Page Eight)

Post-War Problems

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.

THERE is, of course, no escaping the fact that "first things come first." Therefore, the basic essential in the existing situation is the full use of every ounce of our weight to aid the British in crushing Hitler. That is the clear foreign policy of the President, overwhelmingly approved by the people. Despite dissenting voices, the country is completely committed to it and anything like a halfhearted or halfway effort is stupidly contradictory.

THAT is why there should be no hesitation or delay about the repeal or modification of the hampering Neutrality Act, nor in granting any other Presidential request which can be justified as promoting the avowed purpose of his policy. While concentration upon this is natural, paramount, nevertheless not now to give serious thought to the tremendous post-war problems, which so clearly loom, is to risk the freedoms which we so proudly proclaim and to undermine the foundations of our whole economic system.

At least such is the view of two eminent and able men who, without consultation or collaboration but with singular unanimity of thought, recently expressed themselves on this subject. One of these is Assistant Secretary of State Adolph A. Berle, who, in the October issue of Fortune, condenses the main ideas contained in his book. The other is Mr. Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Electric Company, who, in the current American Magazine, lays down certain principles and calls for action to prevent what easily may become a major disaster to every citizen. It is significant that Mr. Berle, one of the original "New Deal Brain Trusters" and a very advanced thinker indeed, should be in such complete accord with the head of one of the greatest of American corporations, a conservative representative of Big Business with no New Deal tendencies whatsoever.

YET Mr. Berle, the liberal intimate of Mr. Roosevelt and Mayor LaGuardia, and Mr. Wilson, the great industrialist, see eye to eye in a very striking way on this vital matter of preparation for the vast job (Continued On Page Eight)

Vacant Houses In State Fewer

Pennsylvania Has One Of
Lowest Vacant Dwelling
Percentages In Nation

ONLY TWO STATES
EQUAL RECORD

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Oct. 9.—Pennsylvania, with only 2.9 per cent of its 2,618,442 dwelling units vacant and for sale or rent on April 1, 1940, had one of the lowest percentages in the nation. Secretary of Commerce Mark S. James declared.

James said that only Iowa and West Virginia ranked with Pennsylvania in less than three per cent of houses unoccupied. Florida, with 8.9 per cent, ranked highest in the nation but seasonal vacancies were given as the reason. New York and New Jersey were bracketed near Florida in high ratios.

While there have been many changes in the housing situation, caused by shifting population in connection with the national defense program, statistics of more than a year ago are highly significant since they are an indication of the normal trend. Studied from a long-range viewpoint, the normal trend, studied from a long-range viewpoint, the normal trend is of major importance and while somewhat affected by temporary emergencies, the true situation is generally reflected by conditions undisturbed by present pressing necessities, James said.

"A statement made by Catherine Bauer, a noted housing authority and former staff member of the Pennsylvania State planning board, that five per cent, vacancies are usually held to be necessary in order to allow for adequate selection on the part of prospective tenants, causes thought with respect to Pennsylvania's status," he said. "While no landlord wants vacancies, the lack of selection will create dissatisfaction on the part of the renters, resulting in a greater turnover which is also undesirable to the owners. Housing shortages also have the tendency to send rents soaring, a condition which few persons wish to see."

"The percentage of vacancy statistics are deceiving since they do not reveal, among other things, dwelling units unfit for habitation which are now being utilized and those vacant that should never be reoccupied. If these houses were eliminated, Pennsylvania's position would be made still further acute."

"There are, however, several bright spots in the housing picture. One of the most important, and especially so to post-defense planners who are thinking ahead to the time when conditions again return to normal and numerous workers are released from their emergency employment, is the feeling that need for housing will go a long way toward absorbing the labor which will be released by defense industries."

Free Technical Training Will Be Offered Here

Three Schools To Sponsor
Programs To Aid Defense Training

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 9.—

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 9.—The agricultural adjustment administration reported today that parity payments to Lawrence county farmers participating in the 1940 A.A.A. program would total $5,643.

Parity payments are made to adjust the difference between actual and parity prices of four crops—corn, wheat, rice and cotton. Only cooperative farmers are eligible to receive such benefits.

The A.A.A. said that such payments to Pennsylvania farmers would aggregate $941,070. Most of this has already been certified for payment. The A.A.A. estimated that such disbursements would total $4,019 in Butler county, $3,307 in Beaver county, and $8,014 in Mercer county. The A.A.A. said such disbursements in the country as a whole would amount to $210,003,151.

Motor Club Opens Safety Campaign In Local Schools

Colorful Posters And Hints In Traffic Safety In Distribution

Schools in the territory of the New Castle Motor club will again be supplied with thousands of colorful A. A. A. school safety posters, traffic safety lesson sheets, and many other aids to help in the job of training youngsters to use streets and highways safely.

Assisted by school administrators and teachers from various parts of the county, who selected the theme and titles for monthly posters and lessons, the American Automobile Association, with which the New Castle Motor club is affiliated, has produced the "Teach Your Friends" safety series for use in schools throughout the United States during the 1941-42 school term.

Based on the idea of encouraging children to help others be more safety minded, and emphasizing the need for knowing the rules yourself before you can teach others, the new poster series is expected to prove extremely effective.

The posters and lesson sheets are issued for each of ten months from September to June, and will be furnished monthly to schools as part of the club's contribution to their programs of safety education, and these are supplemented by suggestions to teachers on classroom safety lessons, special learn-by-doing activities and real-life demonstrations.

The September poster and lesson stress the need for children to "Obey the School Patrol." It is up to motorists to do their part by reducing speed to legal limits in school zones and cooperating with those on patrol duty.

The Great Game Of Politics

of domestic adjustment with which we will be confronted after peace comes. Each clearly visualizes the acute danger of unemployment and business stagnation that seems inevitable when the defense spending stops. Each is certain that, unless plans are formed and action taken now to cushion the impact of the post-war letdown, the American economic system will be unable to stand the strain and something approaching chaos will ensue. As Mr. Berle puts it, "Unless we are prepared to finance the demobilization, we shall be headed at best for a depression and at worst for disorder approaching revolution."

WITH that, Mr. Wilson concurs when he speaks of the "vicious and deadly spiral" created by the dropping of men from factory pay rolls, with the ensuing loss of purchasing power and increase of relief burdens with less tax revenue to support them. "If," he says, "we do not meet this challenge squarely and successfully, we shall move toward an America far different from the one we have known." And just as these two men agree on the national peril ahead, so, too, they agree on the steps that should be taken to avert it. The first of these is the creation in every defense industry of a research staff which shall work constantly on plans for producing peacetime goods. "If," declares Mr. Berle, "any business outfit concerned with war production has not already done so, it is negligent—a negligence that will become an economic crime if it continues. On his side, Mr. Wilson states that his corporation already has such a research division; that it has made marked progress; that he considers this research planning for peace problems by industry of immense importance.

THE second protective step upon which the Messrs. Berle and Wilson are in accord is a "conference." Both of them want a "conference," and without delay. Mr. Wilson urges that the conference should be held late this fall and that it should be a conference of the American Free Enterprise System, which should include representatives of industry, labor, agriculture, finance, and the best brains of engineering and management. Of course, Mr. Berle's conference would include representatives of the Government, and probably Mr. Wilson's would include them, too, though he does not say so. At any rate, it would seem essential for the Government to take the initiative and issue the call. Also, it would seem that negligence in this matter of planning for peace upon the part of the Government is just as criminal as negligence upon the part of industry.

THE proposed conference is a conference to form plans to save the American Free Enterprise System from the destruction threatened by the post-war problems. It is difficult to conceive of a more important proposal. Yet if there is anyone in the Government other than Mr. Berle or other than Mr. Wilson in industry who is concerning himself about this situation, his name cannot now be recalled. The urgency is clear. That two such widely separated men as Mr. Berle and Mr. Wilson, without collaboration, could write articles on the subject so identical, both as to the dangers that threaten and the means by which to avert them, is certainly significant. With so much in common, perhaps if Mr. Berle and Mr. Wilson should personally get together an effective move toward the goal to which they point might be taken. Particularly, as both are strongly convinced that the system can be saved if we plan wisely and in time. Mr. Berle goes further. He believes that with wise planning the system will be stronger than ever and the period following the war one of prosperity and opportunity.

What's What At A Glance

to take effect Oct. 1. Naturally salesmanship latched the extra percentage onto its consumers' bills. It tacked on more, too.

It was noticeable from the very jump. Illustratively, occasionally I've been in the habit of buying a 15-cent drink. Under the new law that drink's price is 20 cents. An extra nickel isn't much, but it's a stiff proportion of a raise. My impression is that the tax isn't high—that the bar scoops in part of the gravy. No matter, though. Uncle Sam gets some of the dough, and is glad of it. At the same time I cut down on that item of luxury buying, which suits Uncle Samuel also.

But at the emergency's end? Then will the price of my 20-cent drinks immediately subside to 15 cents? And will I, thereupon, resume consuming one or two more of 'em daily? Henry Morgenthau's and Marriner Eccles' argument is that that's what'll happen, and, thus, a slump in the bar's business will be averted—there'll be a post-emergency boom, instead.

I'd surmise no such thing. My guess is that, with the debt we're piling up, Uncle Sammy won't be able to get back to his pre-emergency tax basis within two or three generations—that consumers still will be socked, up to the emergency limit, into the indefinite future. So how'll they be fixed to take, up the slack of a depression, by a bargain counter rush to buy everything they couldn't buy previously.

Wait Till Next March

Furthermore, the average middle class consumer won't realize, from today's taxation price hikes, what's in store for him when he gets his next income tax bill. In March, 1942, it'll be about three times his last one, which made him ache considerably.

In short, the economists I talk to give it as their opinion that Henry Morgenthau, Marriner Eccles and Leon Henderson are super-optimists if they think they've got a post-emergency depression headed off in advance.

"Besides," as one of 'em remarked to me the other day, "depressions aren't caused so much by what folks feel in their pocketbooks as by what they feel in their heads."

Chest Funds Shared By Elm St. Y. W. C. A.

Y.W.C.A. ELM STREET BRANCH

Lucy was a girl 16 years of age when she first came to the Elm Street Branch of the Y.W.C.A. Her father was a minister and pastored a church with a very small congregation. Out of his small salary he tried to support a large family of seven children and keep the children in school. The mother had died with T.B., consequently the health of the children had to be guarded with special care.

Lucy joined one of the Girl Reserve clubs at the Elm Street Y.W.C.A. She was a very quiet and frail person but showed signs of ability. At this time the father married again and new adjustments had to be made which were not very easy. Because of the financial struggle in the home it seemed that Lucy would have to leave school, she had two more years in high school. She was taking a course in home economics and was very good in sewing. It was her hope that she would finish and be a seamstress.

Lucy was taken into the Y.W.C.A. to live and given a chance to continue her schooling. She was quite a problem for a while, on one occasion the police matron was called in to talk with her, with the consent of the father. With understanding and patience the problems were solved. Lucy was made adviser of one of the younger girls clubs and taught a sewing class. She finished her home economics course and became a fine seamstress.

A short while after Lucy finished school she was supervisor of a sewing project. Now she is happily married and has a nice home of her own and rearing a nice family.

Turkey-Germany Reported Agreed On Chrome Export

(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 9.—An Exchange Telegraph (British) dispatch from Ankara said today that Turkey and Germany have reached a final agreement for export of chrome to the Reich.

The report said Germany dropped her claim for 50 per cent of the Turkish chrome output and agreed to accept 90,000 tons in 1943.

Turkey was said to have insisted that armaments already ordered from the Reich be delivered immediately.

Exchange said it was expected Dr. Karl Doering, Nazi economic representative, will sign the agreement in the next 24 hours.

(Editor's Note: Reports in London yesterday said the United States had warned Turkey against any reduction of chrome exports to the United States.)

City May Acquire More Scanlon Land

Ultimate Elimination Of Curve Near Mt. Jackson Bridge May Occur

Council met today in city hall and instructed city engineer Glenn Throop to present a recommendation showing land necessary to the city for the ultimate improvement of Montgomery street between the Mt. Jackson bridge and Lafayette street. The land reportedly is owned by M. J. Scanlon.

There was some widening put through last year. However, ultimately the curve may be eliminated entirely and the city may require a plot of land approximately 500 feet long.

According to reports Mr. Scanlon has placed a price which the city considers too high and instructions given to the city engineer today was the first step toward acquiring the land either by purchase or condemnation proceedings.

RUSSIAN FORCES FIGHT FURIOUSLY TO STEM ADVANCE

German forces were reported hurling themselves against these new Soviet lines, using lavish quantities of armaments and weapons but suffering heavy losses in tanks and men.

Military dispatches said the Russians are "rigidly carrying out their policy of replying to the wedge by dealing on-coming German tanks, columns and waves of infantry."

Other German forces were decimated to be continuing "wild onslaughts" in the Vyazma area, using "numberless squadrons of aircraft."

Sacrifice Huge Number Of Men

All reports showed the Germans have not yet been stemmed in the Vyazma sector, but dispatches said they progressed only by sacrificing enormous numbers of men.

A three-day battle in one section of the Vyazma battle zone was said to have cost the Germans 200 tanks, 500 armored cars and many planes. The Russian (Tass) News Agency said the German attack in this sector was being met by vigorous counter-blasts from Russian fighting and bombing planes and by "stubborn infantry resistance and heavy artillery fire."

"The fighting becomes fiercer daily," Tass said.

"Air raids are continuing day and night on both sides.

"Soviet artillery is shelling German reinforcements without respite and inflicting the heaviest losses in man-power and armaments.

"The highest praise is due to the stubborn resistance of the Soviet land forces and the courage of the Red Air Force. The latter is striking telling blows.

"Inhabitants of the new frontal zone are fighting shoulder to shoulder with the Red army."

Meanwhile, with Moscow threatened by the loss of Orel, Russia conceded Nazi superiority on some sectors of the central front and urged the people of the USSR to "destroy the Nazi armies or be enslaved."

SOVIET MILITARY SITUATION GRAVE

plies to Russia become a flushing stream, and the steady German advance will make the transport problem acute even after the supplies are received.

Experts said the weather factor also has been on the side of Chancellor Hitler, since it has prevented R. A. F. bomber and fighter operations for several days and nights.

For several days the Straits of Dover have been enveloped in a thick fog which is beginning to lift only today.

Amid rising pessimism regarding Russia, the Evening Standard appealed to the government to review the whole military strategy of the war and "uphold the Soviets with all our might."

With regard to the possibility that Moscow might fall, it was pointed out the German high command obviously is aiming at annihilation of the Russian armies as the first step, after which territorial acquisitions "simply would be a matter of time."

British military authorities declared the situation on the Leningrad front remained unchanged and that the Nazi drive in the Ukraine from Poltava to Kharkov was being resisted stubbornly.

They added that Berlin claims that German troops have reached Melitopol has not been confirmed and that there was no indication of any further Nazi advance on the Perekop Isthmus toward the Crimea and no alteration of the situation at Odessa.

Daily Dozen

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Psycho-somatic diseases arise from mind-body relationship. They refer to physical symptoms of psychic or mental origin.

Peptic ulcer is a disease in the psycho-somatic class. It is admittedly influenced by psychic imbalance and emotion.

Men who have or have had ulcers are poor army risks.

Many called to military service have gastric hemorrhage soon after. Anxiety over draft call may arouse a long inactive ulcer.

Even among the civilian population war causes increase. Draftees with recent ulcer symptoms are deferred.

This deferment is not only for the sake of the draftee. A soldier subject to peptic ulcer is a drain on army and nation.

The risk is greater than the service he can render his country.

SEEKS TO ARM U. S. VESSELS IN OCEAN SERVICE

repealing that section of the neutrality act which now forbids mounting of protective guns on American cargo vessels.

Zone Restrictions May Stay

Unless the senate later expands the repeal action to nullify the sections which now prohibit these ships from carrying war supplies to British and Russian ports, the combat zone restrictions will remain in the law for the time being.

President Roosevelt has an advance agreement with bi-partisan leaders that sanction for arming merchantmen will be rushed through congress with all possible speed.

Non-interventionists, charging that the action is "a move toward war," are preparing to fight any change in the law with considerable force. Barring a senate filibuster however, leaders hope to clear the repealer in about a month.

In two successive White House conferences with Democratic and Republican leaders, Mr. Roosevelt urged the need for both arming merchant ships and permitting them to travel into now restricted combat zones. He particularly cited recent sinkings of American vessels in neutral waters as a prime reason

Believe Fire In Mine Controlled

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.—Sealing off a section of the huge Montour Mine No. 10 of the Pittsburgh Coal Company at Liberty today was believed to have effectively controlled a fire two miles underground.

The fire, discovered yesterday morning when a loader reported for work, threw 780 miners out of work until "at least Friday, company officials reported.

Officials said the blaze apparently started when a section of the roof collapsed, snapped a trolley cable and knocked it across a loaded coal car. The amount of damage was not immediately estimated.

RECOVER AUTO AND GERM KILLING GAS

It is a fortunate thing for the person or persons who stole the auto of James E. Cross, Fern street, Tuesday night, but recovered by the State Motor police last night at Darlington, they did not open any of the containers in his car. Had they done so it is likely they would have met their end. The cans contained a deadly chemical which Cross employs to exterminate germs following contagious illness.

Urges Support Of Chest Fund

Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson
Asks That Ready Response Be Made

MRS. GRACE PHILLIPS JOHNSON

In the spring housekeepers are thinking, planning and preparing for a general cleaning up of home and premises. In the summer thoughts and plans are turned toward spending the vacation pleasantly.

Then why not when early fall arrives think and plan just as heartily for a Community Chest drive. Before we were thinking of ourselves, now let everybody be unselfish and think and plan for others, this is your opportunity.

If everyone would gratefully consider the idea of giving before anyone comes to him or her, asking for such a gift it would help so much. The solicitor is already giving, it is of time, it may be talent and I am sure each will be giving money also, then why not give generously too. If you are not giving of time and talents then trouble up on the money side. Money is only a life-time loan anyway. If you would give until it really deprives you of some wanted pleasure or luxury our Chest would never lag.

Be prepared this year with your gift, meet the solicitors gladly and be thankful that none of these agencies have been blacked-out as they would be if we were living in some of the other countries. Again silently give the pledge of allegiance to your flag and help these things that our country has made possible.

GRACE PHILLIPS JOHNSON

Employment Is Over Job Level

Figures Show Increase Of Fourteen Per Cent Over August 1940 Level In State

PAYROLLS ALSO 31 PER CENT OVER

By JOHN PAGET
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Oct. 2.—Employment in Pennsylvania defense—vital industries, as well as private business—today is 14 per cent above the job-level of August, 1940, the department of labor and industry reported in a newly-completed survey.
Payrolls, as well, leaped approximately 31 per cent while man-hours worked increased 20 per cent over last year, the department said. The survey was based upon figures available for 2,526,000 employees throughout Pennsylvania at the end of August.
Weekly and hourly earnings, the department reported, were boosted to new monthly highs in the six-year history of departmental employment surveys. The average Pennsylvania worker earned $30.17 a week during August or 75 cents per hour for a 40-hour week, officials said.
Continued gains in manufacturing activity were noticeable in all of the major groups. Only textiles, clothing and leather showed employment decreases of one-tenth of one per cent each, while the leather employers reported that the payroll had declined five-tenths of one per cent.
Decreased activity among leather processors was due entirely to conditions in factories engaged in tanning. Shoe factories reflected some improvement and "leather goods" reported employment gains up to 15 percent and a 25 per cent increase in payrolls.

Christ Our Saviour
Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson
The Golden Text

"Come unto me all ye that labor."
"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have eternal life."—John 3:16.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Oct. 12 is Matt 1:21; 20:25-28; Luke 19:1-10; John 3:16; 6:66-69; Acts 4:12; Rom 3:21-26; 8:31-39; II Cor. 5:14-21; Phil. 2:5-11; Tim. 1:15, the Golden Text being John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have eternal life.")
Christ our Saviour is the subject of our lesson today, and our first reference is in Matthew, telling of His coming. The angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph, affianced to Mary, mother of Jesus, telling him that Mary "shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call His name Jesus; for He shall save His people from their sins."
This message by the angel expresses the mission of Christ on earth, and the many other references contained in our lesson complete the story. Christ's words to His ambitious disciples in Matt. 20, tells us what He knew His mission on earth to be. The story is that the mother of Zebedee's children came to the Lord and asked Him if one of her sons might sit at His left and one at His right in the Kingdom of God. He answered that even if they suffered the fate that was in store for Him as a man, He could not promise that, and when the disciples were angry at the woman for asking such a thing, He said to them:
Service the Test
"Ye know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. Not so shall it be among you; but whosoever would be great among you shall be your minister: And whosoever would be first among you shall be your servant: Even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many."
Self-righteous followers of the Master (if any there be) may well read and re-read this passage. Those who truly follow His teachings will always be conscious that a life of service is what He expects of them. Never should they think that they are better than non-Christians, that they should be looked up to and waited upon. Always should they be humble, devoting themselves to the service of others unceasingly.
The oft-told story of the man who was little in stature, Zacchaeus, is also told in this lesson. It is a pleasant story and shows the influence upon men of the Master when He was on earth. Jesus was passing through Jericho. Many had heard of Him and multitudes flocked about to see Him. Zacchaeus, being short, ran ahead and climbed a tree to view Him from its branches. Nothing escaped Jesus' eye, and as He passed the tree He looked up and called to Zacchaeus to come down, saying, "Make haste, and come down; for today I must abide at thy house."
Zacchaeus came down in haste and received his master joyfully. The people around murmured. Here was a man whom they hated. He was very like our dishonest politicians and grafters, a Jewish tax-gatherer, probably guilty of receiving bribes, of over-taxing and squeezing his own people, the Jews, and he had grown wealthy at this game, and in consequence was thoroughly disliked.
Zacchaeus Is Converted
What was the effect of the presence of Christ upon him? He said: "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold." In other words, so impressed was he that he repented his sins and was willing to impoverish himself if by so doing he could be accepted of the Lord.
"And Jesus said unto him, This day salvation came to this house, forasmuch as he also is the son of Abraham. For the Son of Man is come to save that which was lost."
Our Golden Text reiterates the same message of Christ's mission on earth: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have eternal life."
"Come a time when many of Jesus' followers would no longer accept His teachings, thinking them too hard. Then He turned to the 12, and said, "Will ye go away?"
Simon Peter made answer: "Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God."
Summing up our lesson, if we accept Jesus and earnestly strive to follow His teachings, our reward will be far above all earthly recompense. In the beautiful words of Paul in his letter to the Romans, chapter 8, verses 37-39:
"In all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us."
"For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come."
"Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Salvation Army Sponsors Dinner For Corps Cadets

Captain Myrtle Reynolds of Pittsburgh Is Main Speaker For Program

New Castle's Salvation Army Corps Cadets and prospective corps cadets were entertained at a dinner-party at the corps house, North Jefferson street, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Carl Andraesen was in charge of the program and the devotional period. Games were played during the social hour that followed the dinner.

June Welkenbach opened the devotional hour with a short prayer. Scripture reading was performed by June Chabolt.

Captain Carl Andraesen was called upon and he spoke a congratulatory word to the cadets, Elizabeth Brown and Joyce Gordon entertained with a duet.

Captain Myrtle Reynolds, of Pittsburgh, was introduced as the main speaker for the event. She presented a fine talk covering the duties and work of a cadet in the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Christian Gray, assistant Corps Cadet leader here, brought the meeting to a close with benediction.

Charges Housing Is "Forced" On Cities

CANTON, O., Oct. 9.—Discussions housing in the defense boom. Earl Smith of Akron, president of the Real Estate Board there on Wednesday asserted that the government in some instances has forced projects upon communities which did not need them.

He spoke at the weekly meeting of the Canton Real Estate Board in Hotel Courtland.

The Akron man declared that of 750 housing units built in San Diego Calif., by the government, only 45 were occupied.

In Akron, he said, one project was built to house families in the $80-a-month bracket, but persons making as high as $250 a month are living in the homes.

He also discussed the effect of priorities on building materials.

Men In Service Not Required To Pay Personal Tax

Members of city council today took a step toward protecting soldiers, sailors and marines now in service. The council instructed City Assessor John Cartwright to compile a list of young men now in military or naval service who are required to pay a personal tax. The council proposes to exonerate this tax until the men return from service.

Safety Director D. O. Davies brought up this phase of taxation when council met today in city hall. Every member of council and the presiding officer, Mayor Charles B. Mayne, agreed the interest of such men should be protected so they could not, at any future time, be charged with a tax, unpaid, while in service.

Safety Director Davies said that the boys realize that no personal tax can be charged while they were serving, but he advocated a record be compiled to show they were in service and exonerated has been granted.

Assessor Cartwright was present during the discussion. He informed council that he already had started making such a record, getting his information from the Red Cross which is said to possess the name and address of every one in service of his or her country.

In Russia, it is the custom of the bride to wear a garland of wormwood to denote the bitterness of marriage.

Bell Telephone Employees Hear Defense Talks

700 PRESENT AT MEETING HERE

The vitally essential part that telephone service has in the ever-increasing activities for national defense was emphasized last night by speakers highly placed in the government service and in industry at a rally of Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania employees in the Scottish Rite Cathedral, New Castle.

With an attendance of about 700 at the Scottish Rite Cathedral the rally was one of nineteen meetings, conducted simultaneously throughout Pennsylvania and in Delaware. All meetings were united by a telephone network.

Attendance at all the assembly points was estimated at close to 25,000. Virtually every employee was present except telephone operators on night duty at switchboards and maintenance staffs at the various telephone exchanges.

Among Speakers
The speakers included William H. Harrison, Production Director for the Office of Production Management; Brigadier General Dawson Olmstead, Acting Chief Signal Officer, U. S. Army; Rear Admiral A. E. Watson, Commandant of the Fourth Naval District and Commandant of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and Andrew W. Robertson, chairman of the board, Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company; F. J. Chesterman, vice president in charge of operations; and Edwin M. Clark, vice president of personnel of the Bell Company.

Music and unison singing preceded the major addresses. Beads from various cities and heard at all the meetings. A feature was the showing of a motion picture, "The Job Ahead," prepared especially for the rallies by the Bell Company.

Paul T. Baldwin, district manager for the Bell Company, was chairman of the rally at the Scottish Rite Cathedral. The invited guests included: Fred L. Rents, president of The New Castle News; P. J. Flaherty, president Johnson Bronze Company; J. H. McKee, Curtis Wright Plant; Earl R. Thompson, general foreman, Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company; Geo. W. Carson, Beaver Falls Review; Robert Porteous, Zelenon's News Beacon; and W. S. Keigel, Ellwood City Ledger.

At 7:45 p. m. unison singing started, accompanied by a concert orchestra at Philadelphia, heard over the entire network. At 8 p. m., after a fanfare of trumpets, the start of the program was announced by P. L. Schauble, general information manager. J. Frank Cox, vice president and general manager of the Bell Company then delivered a brief "keynote" address for this area, followed by the national speakers.

Controversy Over Corn-Husking Peg

(Special To The News)
GROVE CITY, Oct. 9.—Local controversy over the oldest cornhusking peg continues to rage, with the latest claimant distancing the field by more than 20 years with an entry that is more than 80 years old.

E. E. McCamant, Kinder avenue, has an entry with a unique history. It was used, through the Civil War, as a toothpick by his grandfather, the late J. B. McCamant of Leesburg, for whom it was made several years before the rebellion by William Bunney, Leesburg blacksmith, from the iron linchpin of an old wagon.

The present owner used the peg constantly after his grandfather died, and two years ago he husked 1,000 bushels of corn with it.

Satisfied with unrelenting confidence and gripped by a zealous desire to win, Union township and Bessemer high nervously await the start of their annual County Class B football struggle, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, on Union field.

Since the clash is one of the key stops on the 1941 football parade for both schools, more than 2,000 fans are expected to witness the proceedings. Union high officials have made arrangements to accommodate the gathering.

As for the outcome of the tussle each school is stuffed with optimism. "We'll end Bessemer's monopoly of the championship this season. This is our year," one of Union's ace supporters said. From Bessemer way, followers of the red and black graced warriors insist that their favorites have the "Indian sign" on the Scotland Lane outfit.

The record books show that Union high hasn't emerged victorious over a Bessemer eleven since 1930 when the Scotland Lane entry copped a 7-0 triumph. Last year, Bessemer trotted off the gridiron with a 20-0 defeat dangling on their rivals.

Union's chances of victory suffered terrific setback with the loss of John Presnar, who sustained a dislocated knee, and Walter Jaskolska, fullback ace, who is nursing chest bruises. The pair was hurt in the Grove City game last week-end.

No Adult Tickets Will Be Sold Here

Robert Mills, ticket manager at New Castle High, announced today that there will not be any adult tickets for the New Castle-McKeesport game on sale in this city. McKeesport does not have any reserved seats.

The adult general admission tickets sell for 55 cents and can be bought at the gate at World War Memorial Field. The student tickets will be 28 cents. Whether or not an advance sale will be sent here is not known.

Washington High Next Home Game

New Castle Will Face Presidents Here Following McKeesport Game This Saturday

New Castle high football team will be away this coming Saturday, the schedule calling for a trip to World War Memorial field at McKeesport. The next home game will be on Friday, October 17, bringing the powerful Washington High eleven here to Taggart Stadium.

If New Castle gets by the McKeesport game they will have but two more hurdles in the way of an undefeated Class AA championship record. One of these hurdles is the Washington High team, the other Scott High of Braddock. New Castle has won two double A games already—Butler and Beaver Falls.

The New Castle squad held a two-hour workout yesterday and perfected blocking and pass defense. New Castle has been working on several new plays for the game Saturday, having been scouted to death by the McKeesport coaching staff and in need of some foolers. Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh is satisfied that the Red Hurricane will be ready for the battle that awaits them this coming Saturday.

The New Castle squad will pull out of Pa. News domain at 8:30 o'clock on Saturday morning for McKeesport. A stop half-way between here and McKeesport will no doubt be made for lunch. The game will start at 2 o'clock.

Moran To Battle Ashford Tonight In Ellwood Ring

And now that Mayor Charlie B. Mayne's pugilistic party is history, fans who like amateur boxing served often will go to the Shelby Social club, Ellwood City, tonight where Johnny Locisano has prepared an evening's event.

Milton Ashford, Braddock, 1940-41 Diamond Belt champion lightweight, is scheduled to box Frankie Moran, conqueror of Julius Walt and oodles of others by a knockout. Billy Garrett, another Diamond Belt champ, will box Pete Misto or some other welterweight in the semi-final.

Les Leasure and Bob Carmichael who fought a sterling set to here some weeks ago will appear in another "go."

Roy Crews, Ellwood City's colored welterweight, is assigned to fight Mutt Casale, Clint Brown will oppose Joey Perrone, and Julius Walt, erstwhile foe of Moran, will meet Walter Marshall, and Art Rotnour will oppose Al Wolgast. There will be one other bout.

The first bout will start at 8:30 p. m.

Lloyd Waner Is Handed Release

(International News Service)
CINCINNATI, Oct. 9.—The Cincinnati Reds today gave outfielder Lloyd "Little Poison" Waner his outright release to make room on their roster for 25-year-old Jim Pendergast, southpaw hurler drafted from Little Rock, in the Southern Association.

Lloyd and his brother, Paul, were the slugging stars of the Pittsburgh Pirates for many years. Paul came to the Reds last spring from Boston in exchange for Pitcher Johnny Hutchings, and hit .256 in 164 times at bat with the Reds.

Washington High Playing Farrell

With Albert Knight as the spearhead of their running attack the big George Washington High football team is in Farrell today battling the Farrell Junior High team at 3:30 o'clock.

Coach Art Alexander's squad was in fair physical shape for the game, only Andrews and Clark still nursing ailments suffered in the opening game at Campbell.

The North Hillers are out to capture their third straight of the season, having disposed of Campbell and Sharpville in previous games.

Series Teams Are Anxious For Final Battle Of Season

West Pittsburg Will Battle Moose Club, Sunday At Marshall Field

Both West Pittsburg and the Moose club baseball teams are anxious to get the championship series over for the 1941 season, and Sunday afternoon (weather permitting) at 2 o'clock the two teams will tangle. Both teams have won one game. The winner Sunday takes the City League title.

Manager Danny DeGenova of the West Pittsburg "Gas House" gang intends to pitch either Joe "Screach" Dombeck or Mike Marky, while Manager Rodenbaugh will more than likely string along with Monk Rainey or Joe Frigione.

The two teams were set for a game last Sunday until the rains came in the first inning and made the field unplayable.

If the weather is right on Sunday the largest crowd of the season will be on hand, no doubt.

GUSTINE AT THIRD
PITTSBURGH—While the baseball season is still many months away, the Pittsburgh Pirates reportedly are seriously thinking of shifting Gustine to third base when the season rolls around in 1942.

Only a few seasons back, Mississippi was considered the doormat of the Southeastern Conference. This season, however, Ole Miss is rated the top position by experts. Mississippi dropped its initial game to Georgetown, 16-6.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

Sports short-ez scribbled on the run:—

In jelling Julius Walt, Frankie Moran, the ruthless wrecker of amateur fighters, pinned up one of his most important victories. Experienced ringmen hardly figured the dynamic local puncher to plant a sleep producer on the crafty Walt. The Cecil had praised Moran to the sky, when things stopped going around before his eyes. Frankie by the way, notched his 14th knockout in his last 15 outings.

Borrowing an idea made famous by collegiate football powers, New Castle high now employs a direct communication wire from Taggart stadium's press warren to "Hurricane" players' bench. Two competent players, who carefully look for flaws unfolded on the field quickly report their findings to the bench. The new plan will be used only during home games.

Even with the departure of Paul Eugene Brown to Ohio State, football is still the No. 1 love of Massillon's citizenry. White watching the vaunted "Tigers" in action recently, Don C. Baker pulled out a black box and started to take moving pictures of the game. Said Baker got the heave. He was taken under the stands and forced to surrender the films. Baker happens to

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

The Chicago Daily News today reported that George Magerkurh, husky National League umpire who had several run-ins with the Brooklyn Dodgers the past season, not only lost his world series assignment but will not return as a major league umpire next season. Magerkurh was supposed to work with Larry Goetz in the Dodger-Yankee classic but was replaced by Babe Pinelli. This step, the Chicago writer asserted was traceable largely to a row between the arbiter and the Dodgers during a Dodger-Pittsburgh series last month.

The Cubs have released Charlie Root, for 16 years a Cubs hurler and 201 game winner. The American Hockey League will start play October 29. Youngstown College will play Illinois Wesleyan at Rayen Stadium, Youngstown, Friday. Grove City and Geneva will play tonight at Reeves Stadium, Beaver Falls. Frank Barbaro, Detroit, proposes to get under way a tournament three October 17, to uncover a heavyweight capable of beating Joe Louis. He expects the effort will cost him $75,000.

Russell Baxter will not box tonight in Ellwood City. He incurred a wound under his lower lip which required three stitches to close. Russell was somewhat disheartened by having been defeated by Johnny Como. However, he shouldn't take this to heart. Very few boxers ever ascended the ladder until they had

'Fitness' Runners To Be Greeted Here

A reception fitting to the occasion will be arranged by the Greater New Castle Association for the Pennsylvania high school track stars who spend a week-end in New Castle early in November on their "cross-state physical fitness run" sponsored by the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. The run will extend from Erie to Philadelphia.

Franklin Hi Held To Scoreless Tie

East Siders Fail To Dent Sharon Junior High Goal Line

Ben Franklin Junior High football team was held to a scoreless tie at Sharon on Tuesday afternoon by Sharon Junior High, although the locals, according to the figures, outplayed the Sharonites, they could not dent the goal line.

The Cowmadow machine rolled up nine first downs to two for Sharon. The yardage figures show that Franklin gained 194 yards from scrimmage while the Sharon team gained but 38 yards.

Fumble is costly
The only real scoring threat of the game came in the second period when the Franklin team drove to the Sharon 2-yard line, but lost the ball on a fumble. Deviddeo and Williams gained plenty of yardage but could not shake away for a touchdown. Sharon never once threatened the local goal line.

Best in the Sharon lineup were Lebett and Bayer with Rouzzo and Ciccone the Franklin High line standouts.

Next Thursday afternoon at Taggart stadium the Farrell Junior High team will play the Franklinites.

Titans To Play At Hiram Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Westminster Titans will travel to Hiram college in Ohio Saturday in an attempt to annex their second win of the season from the Hiram Terriers, who have been blanked by both Mt. Union and Grove City this year.

The Titans lost an upset game last Saturday to Slippery Rock, 6-0, but expect to add another win to their Tech victory when they meet the Ohio eleven.

It is doubtful if Felix Demoise, Titan halfback, will play this Saturday, following a knee injury in the Rocket game. Otherwise the Titan lineup will be the same as the starters against Slippery Rock.

Traditionally, Westminster has the advantage in football games with Hiram in a series that started back in 1904 when the Titans defeated the Terriers 23-0. Hiram's only victory in an eight-game series between the schools came in 1912 with a 13-0 win. Last game between the schools was in 1918.

Although the Titan pass defense looked good against the Rockets Westminster resumed its old habit of being able to drive inside the ten-yard line—and fail to score. Starters against the Terriers will probably be J. Demoise and Hamilton, ends; Zech and Reed or Hopkins, tackles; Carlson and Hudson, guards; Glass, center; Evanoff, quarter; Felix Demoise and Newton, halfbacks, and Murphy or Riggie, fullback.

BACK AT ARMY

WESTMINSTER—Earl Blaik is back at Army. A former star at Army, Blaik coached at Dartmouth and accepted the coaching call at the service school before the start of the 1941 season. Blaik previously helped coach the backfield at Army. He succeeded Captain Bill Wood.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEALL

Boy, oh boy, were we surprised last evening when a business man in New Castle came to the front door and said, "there is a present for you." We examined the package and found a quart jar of Apple Butter . . . the same Apple Butter we were talking about in last night's paper . . . We can hardly wait until dinner time tonight, fresh bread and apple butter . . . again we say thanks.

Some are probably wondering how we made out with our cooking experiment last night . . . well, the "stuff" is made and we think it tastes mighty good . . . one thing, the hot peppers burnt our fingers and they still feel hot this morning. A few drops of this liquid fire in Ketchup and you have something mighty fine . . . One of us secrets we are going to keep for a few days until we see just how many people burn from eating the little we made last night . . . have you any pet cooking ideas that you would like to share with some of the cooking experts of the community.

Here is a little suggestion . . . and it's directed to the controlling men of the High School Football Ticket sellers or what have you . . . Why not let boys in service uniform into the Football game FREE? . . . We hope this matter will be taken up with the proper authority soon.

The workers are out on the Community Chest Campaign . . . according to reports we have picked up from some of the workers . . . we hope that when they report Friday, a great portion of the total amount needed will be turned in . . . If little old Butler can go away over the top in a few days . . . why can't New Castle do better? But it's not up to one or two people . . . everyone must cooperate . . . so come on folks do your bit and show the world that New Castle is the best town in the United States.

Have you been around town lately and looked over some of the nice houses that the folks of this town are building? They are doing a nice job of it . . . new sections have sprung up and some of the older sections are getting new homes. Drive around and look them over . . . very interesting, very interesting.

Don't forget the classified ads . . . they are working night and day to do your business good.

State Police Searching For Cattle Thieves

Hope To Apprehend Thieves
Who Have Been "Rustling Here

ADVISE FARMERS TO BE ON ALERT

State Motor police hope to capture rustlers who have been stealing cattle in the Enon Valley district, obtain convictions and see the court give the limit of the law, five years imprisonment and a fine of $5,000, to the rustlers. They believe that one or two doses of such "medicine" would end cattle thefts here.

So far the cattle thieves have been escaping a dragnet but like other criminals may soon discover the arm of the law is long.

The motor police believe that farmers and cattle raisers can help arrests by putting some kind of identification mark on cattle so that they can positively identify cattle, if not butchered, if discovered in the possession of other than the owners.

The same goes for chickens, approximately 200 having been stolen in Lawrence county during the past several days. Some farmers have been putting indelible pencil marks on chickens and through such means arrests and convictions have been obtained.

Watch Suspicious Vehicles
According to State Motor police the National Cattle Theft act is severe, several sections of which read as follows:

"Whoever shall transport or cause to be transported in interstate or foreign commerce any cattle knowing the same to have been stolen, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than five years or both."

"Whoever shall receive, conceal, store, barter, buy, sell or dispose of any cattle moving in or constituting part of interstate or foreign commerce, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than five years or both."

Several years ago various sections in Lawrence county were similarly affected. However, following an intensive investigation the State Motor police apprehended the thieves and they received severe sentences in Lawrence county court.

The State Motor police corporal requested that farmers lose no time in telephoning direct to 1000 should they notice any suspicious truck, car or person in or near their property, because the thieves may be "spotting" a "job."

"If possible jot down the license number of the motor vehicle and what kind of a make it is," he advised. "This information may go far toward solving the thefts," the corporal stated.
